

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE

Elgin, Ill.—After being told his wife, a patient at Elgin hospital, could not get well, Wm. Ericason, 6343 Fairfield av., Chicago, shot her and then himself. Both dead. Believed a pact.

Wallace, Idaho.—Simon Guggenheim, chairman of board of American Smelting & Refining Co. and other of company's officials snowbound between landslides on train near summit of Cour d'Alene mountains.
